
COLLEGIUM NOVI PRINCETONENSE

FROM the LIBRARY of COLLEGE of NEW ROCHELLE GIFT OF
CLASS OF 1962

Under the commonplace envelope of things
and of all our purified and salvaged efforts, a New Earth is slowly being engendered.

CHRISTINE HOEFER

The greater man becomes, the more humanity becomes united, with consciousness of, and mastery of, its potentialities, the more beautiful creation will be, the more perfect adoration will become, and the more Christ will find, for mystical extensions, a body worthy of resurrection. The world can no more have two summits than a circumference can have two centres. The star for which the world is waiting, without yet being able to give it a name, or rightly appreciate its true transcendence or even recognize the most spiritual and divine of its rays, is, necessarily, Christ Himself, in whom we hope.
